THE ADIRONDACK HOTEL ON LONG LAKE

LUNCH MENU

*The Adirondack Hotel, built in the 1850's, is the last Hotel of its kind still in operation.
It is a visit to a time passed with original tin ceilings, fireplace and rooms with a Victorian Adirondack theme.*

The original structure, Kellogg's Lake House, burned to the ground in 1898.

Steve Lamos rebuilt the Hotel for owner John Anderson in 1899.

The building was enlarged in 1914 by adding a formal dining room and 8 more guest rooms.

The current owner Carol Young-Inserra has owned the hotel for the past 28 years. She has added her own touches and renovations to this Historical building.

It is truly one of a kind.

The Hotel is situated on the southeast shore of Long Lake.

Visitors from all over the world come to view the Seward Ranges to the north, and the High Peaks from the Hotel's dinning areas and beautiful verandas.

Our mission is to treat all our guests with such warmth and hospitality that they will return again and again.
